

David Warren Barden

December 28, 1965 - June 6, 2018

David Warren Barden, 52, passed away on June 6, 2018 at his home after a 4-year battle with brain cancer. He was born December 28, 1965, in Hartford, Connecticut, to Warren Everett and Dorothy Ann LeClaire Barden. He was married on August 1, 1987 to Jodie Maude Recor in Mansfield, Connecticut.

Dave grew up in Connecticut and attended Becket Academy in East Haddam, Connecticut. He enlisted in the Navy following graduation and served four years aboard the nuclear aircraft carrier USS Nimitz, stationed in Norfolk, VA and later Bremerton, WA. Dave had seen much of the world while in the Navy, and wanted to see more of his country. On a trip out west, he and Jodie fell in love with Southern Utah and moved to LaVerkin in October 1994. Dave was a real handy man, and built his house in Hurricane in 2000. He worked at Wal-Mart Distribution in Hurricane and made many friends there. Dave loved to go hiking in the washes of Zion and travel to various national parks. He and Jodie also loved Carrbna, California which was like a home away from home. Dave's favorite hobby was photography. Dave was a lifelong Red Sox fan. When the Red Sox won the World Series in 2004, he saw a dream fulfilled. In March 2014, Dave was diagnosed with glioblastoma multiforme (GBM), an aggressive form of brain cancer. Cancer didn't take his optimistic spirit and he continued to travel and enjoy life as much as possible. His mantra during treatment was "when the going gets tough, the tough go on vacation." He was an inspiration to all who knew him. Dave loved to help people, and enjoyed talking to them. He will be remembered for his quick wit and sense of humor. Dave was a member of the American Legion Post 52 in Coventry-Mansfield, Connecticut.

Dave is survived by his wife of 30 years Jodie and beloved Norwich terrier Jack; his mother Dorothy Eaton and stepfather Joseph Eaton; his sister Laurie (Dennis) Freeman; nephews Benjamin DesRosier and Justin Hynes; niece Kendra Hynes; mother-in-law Joyce Recor Passmore; and brother-in-law Edward Jeffrey (Roberta) Recor. He is preceded in death by his father Warren Barden; sister Linda Barden; niece Kathleen Sanelli; grandparents Harry and Viola LeClaire; and father-in-law Edward J. R. Recor.

The family would like to thank Dixie Regional Medical Center Oncology Services, Neurosurgical Services, Inpatient and Outpatient Neuro Rehab, as well as Dixie Hospice. Dave received the most wonderful care both during treatment and when treatment was no longer an option. He gave cancer all he had and never gave up. Special thanks to Craig Donaldson, MD; Ben Fox, MD; Jotham Manwaring, MD, and Brian Tudor, MD as well as hospice nurse Kathy for their extraordinary care and compassion.

“ I knew Dave from Mansfield Middle School, him and Linda were both great kids with a lot to offer. As time rolled on we all lost touch, however on occasion I would hear that Dave had landed well. That was good and welcome news, I would have liked to have known him as an adult, however if he matched the integrity that he had in his youth, and I'm sure that he did, he was a fine man. Godspeed brother. Dan Roberts

“ I was an across the street neighbor of David & Jodie for 5 years, and it was delightful having his friendship. It's true he was always willing to help lend a hand. He was always happy and loved life. He kept one of the best manicured lawns in the neighborhood. We often competed in that category. My thoughts and prayers are with Jodie and the family. David will be missed...

“ Prayers to the family and loved ones of Dave. I know Dave from our time working at Walmart. I called him Dapper Dave because he always had his appearance in order. From time to time I would give Dave a hard time about his service in the Navy me being a Army Vet. that's what we do. Dave would take it in stride and he could dish it out too. Dave was always up to tell me a good joke and to hear one too. Honored to have known you buddy. R.I.P. John Tsutsui
