

Diane Lamoreaux

December 2, 1950 - August 21, 2020

Diane Lamoreaux, age 69, died peacefully in her home in St. George on August 21, with her son and daughter-in-law at her side. She battled cancer with surgery, chemotherapy, and radiation and enjoyed a little time when she thought she had won. But cancer had just been hiding and came back hitting hard. She tried again to fight, but it was not a battle she could win.

She was born December 2, 1950, and grew up playing outdoors in Paragonah with her brothers, their friends, and cousins. She graduated from Parowan High School. Diane was fiercely independent and self-reliant. Her son, Cade, was her pride and joy and his friends were always accepted, welcomed in her home, and treated like family.

Diane was strong, with firm opinions, was extremely loyal, quick to laugh, and fond of Diet Pepsi with ice. She was a tireless worker and the go-to person for bottling and preserving the harvest from her father's enormous garden and fruit trees in Paragonah. She also hauled countless trunk-loads of zucchini, squash, cucumbers, apples and peaches to give to friends and co-workers in St. George.

Diane worked for the Five County Association of Governments for 33 years and made life-long friends. She continued to volunteer to take the minutes of meetings after her retirement so she could maintain contacts and keep in touch. In 2013 the Utah Housing Coalition named her the Utah Housing Matters Person of the Year.

Diane liked to have busy hands and always had crocheting or embroidery underway, often both at the same time. She also turned pasta into small, delicate angel ornaments for Christmas. Her brothers, sisters, nieces, nephews, and friends were recipients of her lovely handiwork.

Diane is survived by her son, Cade and his wife, Brooke, and two bonus grandsons, Kaden and Josh; her father, Walter K, brothers Randy (JoAnne) and Gary (Lisa); and sister Janet (Ron) Carter. She was especially close to, and supported by, special nieces

J.C. Durfee, Monica Condie, and Shanell Jensen. She was preceded in death by her mother, EveLou, and sister, Janice Sturdevant.

A graveside service will be held on Saturday, August 29, at 10:30 a.m. in the Paragonah Cemetery where she will be interred.

Family and friends are invited to share condolences online at: <http://www.SerenityStG.com>. Arrangements are under the direction of Serenity Funeral Home, St. George of Southern Utah, 435-986-9100.

“ Cade, I was so sad to read this online this morning. It is never easy losing a parent no matter our age. Sending prayers for all during this difficult time.

“ I will forever miss our walks and talks. Sweet pickles and bottled peaches. Beautiful doilies, embroidered dish cloths, crocheted afghans for my babies and of course the signature Dinny scrubbies. I'll miss the stories and the laughter. I'm going to miss my friend and Aunt so very much. Diane will never know the comfort she was to me after I lost my mother or how grateful I am for the time I had with her. SYS chica. I love you

“ I was so sorry to hear of Diane's passing. She was a friend and co-worker of mine for over 25 years. She was so smart and had such a fantastic memory. We could always count on her to remember a date or a name or whatever the rest of us had long forgotten. I truly love the tiny, delicate Christmas angels she made for me; and the beautiful doily she crocheted still adorns a table in my living room. She was a treasured friend. I will miss her. With love.....Jo Seegmiller
