

Julie Claire Cornell

October 8, 1942 - May 13, 2018

Julie Claire Cornell, 75 of SunRiver, St. George, UT - was born on October 8, 1942 and passed away on Sunday May 13, 2018. She is preceded in death by her husband, David Eugene Cornell, her mother Geraldine Grace Walker, and her father William Fred Walker. Julia is also survived by her brother, Henry Walker and his wife Susan Galligan Walker, also her nephew Tim Walker and his wife Leanne Rigo Walker, and their two children Grace and Liam, that she loved like grandchildren.

Julie was born in Whittier, CA and grew up in La Habra, CA. She went to La Habra high school but dropped out in her senior year. That same year she rebuilt the engine on her 1955 corvette, with very little help, and left on a road trip with a close friend. She settled in Tennessee for several years before returning to California. At that point Julie returned to school, getting her GED. At that point she went to work as a paralegal for a Los Angeles law firm.

Julie loved breeding, raising and showing Arabian horses. Julie's most loved Arabian was prize winning Nusad. Julie also loved playing the banjo, which is how she met her husband to be, David, at a Shakeys pizza parlor in Southern California. They both enjoyed playing the banjo, together and in groups.

After retirement they split their time between Dave's family home in Encampment, WY and their new home in the SunRiver community.

In her later years, Julie became interested in her families genealogy. Unfortunately she will never be able to finish the work she started.

There will be no services. Julie will be laid to rest, in a private ceremony with her husband David, at Mountain View Cemetery in Encampment, WY.
