“ I'll always remember first meeting Melvin and his wife Virginia. I was driving from Phoenix to Salt Lake City with my two step children. He offered to have us stop in St George for a bite to eat and a place to rest on our journey. Never having met me, only knowing that I was a friend of his daughter Gladys. We arrived to a nicely set table with a table cloth, folded napkins and silverware properly placed. He (Melvin) had prepared sandwiches, fruit and fresh lemonade for us. Wonderful conversation and a warm feeling of love filled their home. He as also had a special place in my heart. Watching him care tenderly for Virginia as she was ill and needing more care. Melvin was truly a loving spouse and example of unconditional love and grace. Heaven has received a kind genuine soul without a doubt. My love and deepest sympathy to your whole family. He will be sorely miss.

“ I WAS HIS HOME TEACHER FOR SOME TIME. WE ALSO LIVED OVER THE FENCE FROM HIM AND PHYLLIS. HE WAS VERY KNOWLEDGABLE. HE WAS FAITHFUL TO ATTEND HIS MEETINGS AND YOU KNEW SOMETHING WAS WRONG IF HE WASN'T THERE! HE WAS VERY CONCERNED ABOUT TAKING CARE OF HIS WIFE. WE HAVE SHARED MEALS AND TIME VISITING WITH HIM IN THE PAST.
WE WILL MISS HIM. WELDON & CARMEN SUDWEEKS

“ My very first memory of Mel was the day he helped move his daughter Gladys into the CEU dorms. I sat watching in awe at the what I believed to be shoes, box after box after box. Mel carried them tirelessly from the car, up the stairs and back down the stairs for more! I knew at that moment, that man was special and sure did love his daughter! I have nothing but great memories of watching him quilt, cook and serve. Caring for those he loved and never giving up. This man was a kind and gentle soul. He lived life to the fullest. In all the 44 years Ive known him I have never heard an unkind word escape his mouth. My life is truly better for having known him,
Much love to all of his family,
