“ Bishop and Sister Boden and Mike(y), I talked with Dad this morning and he had read about Peter yesterday. We are so sorry!! We all love your family so much and hope the peace of the Lord will fill your hearts! My memories of Peter mainly revolve around early morning seminary and youth activities. He and Dave Green were always together and cracking jokes. Although Dave was the most vocal, there was always this quiet, mischievous glint in Peter's eyes that made you think he had much more to do with the joke than he let on. He was fun, sometimes quiet, and always, always kind to me and anyone I ever saw him with. Through basketball and volleyball, chess and ping pong, scripture chases and church dances, he was always the gentleman. I did see him angry one time, I think at a basketball game. His face was very red and he was mad about something. I think everyone sided with him and knew there had been foul play because he never got mad. He was a gem! I'm glad I know him.

Thanks for raising such a good man!!

“ My sympathy to the Bodon's. Pete was a smart, good looking guy who a lot of the other kids looked up to. God be with you.
