

Adalyn Grace Brown

May 2, 2015 - November 13, 2015

Adalyn Grace came into this world with a plan and purpose of her own. She was born on May 2, 2015, and was not expected to live long after birth. Yet, she amazed us all with the miracle of her life. We were able to spend six beautiful months with her, getting to know her incredible and particular personality. While our time with her was far too short, she was a brilliant light in countless lives, especially in the lives of her parents. She faced many mountains during her short time here, but endured with such patience. She taught us countless lessons with her life; most importantly to live every moment purposefully and that nothing is greater than love.

She returned home to heaven on November 13, 2015, when her little lungs became too tired to continue. She will inspire us to always try to be a little better until the incredible day when we see her again. She will forever be in the hearts of her parents, David and Amanda Brown, and in the hearts of their close family and friends who came to love her deeply and completely. We will miss you every moment sweet girl! Always stay close by!

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, November 21, 2015, at 11:00 a.m. at the LDS Fort Pierce Chapel, 750 Ft. Pierce Dr., St. George, UT. A viewing will be held from 10:00 to 10:30 a.m. prior to the services also at the chapel. Interment will follow at the Tonaquint Cemetery.

“ We send our deepest heartfelt sympathy to you and your family for the loss of your precious daughter, Adalyn. Daily may God (Ps.147:3) give you the strength needed to cope with such a great loss. Please know that others continue to care about your loss.

“ Dear Brown Family,

I am so terribly sorry for the great loss of your precious little baby girl, Adalyn, my deepest sympathies. I can only imagine how extremely difficult it must be to cope with the pain of such a loss. It seems very unnatural to lose loved ones the way we do. Something that has personally helped me cope is Psalm 34:17, 18 and Isaiah 25:8. Knowing God is near to those broken at heart, he has a purpose in play to swallow up death forever, that he holds them in his memory and will resurrect our loved ones helps me greatly. Whenever things seemed too unbearable I reflected on these verses and found great comfort, may they bring you comfort too. May you, also, in time find comfort in your daughters memories, and strength in the companionship of the life you shared together!

With heartfelt condolences,

The Munro Family
