OBITUARY FOR ADAM MICHAEL BERRY

Adam Michael Berry, 39, passed away January 15, 2019. He was born on August 15, 1979 in the UCLA Medical Center in Los Angeles, California. He was adopted at the age of 6 weeks by Richard and Diana Parkins Berry.

He is survived by his parents, his wife Mindi, daughter Trinity, son Brennan, step children Rylee and Braxton Cook, his three sisters; Jane' Nappi, Michele Diamond, and Danielle Jones.

Adam obtained the rank of Eagle Scout at the age of 14, while living in Meridian, Idaho. He graduated from Blue Ridge High School in Pinetop-Lakeside, Arizona in 1998. Adam was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and served a church mission in the Oregon Eugene mission.

After his mission he married Theresa Whitehead and welcomed daughter Trinity while living in Mesa, Arizona. This marriage ended in divorce in 2005. He later met and married Mindi Lynn Gull in 2015 and welcomed a son Brennan into their family a year later.

Adam had a fun and dynamic personality. Laughter was the hallmark of his life. His favorite interests were cars, snowmobiling, riding watercrafts, and football.

Adam passed away as a result of an aggressive type of cancer. He will be remembered for his compassion, kindness, and forgiveness.

His family would like to thank all of the medical personnel that attended to Adam in the IHC hospital in St. George and the University of California San Diego Health hospital in San Diego, California for their compassionate and professional care. We also would like to thank all those who prayed for Adam while he was in the hospitals. We love you Adam. #adamstrong.

“ Adam, I am thinking about you today. I am so grateful to have contacted you prior to your passing. Thank you for always being so good to my family when we were living in Arizona and for all the rides to school. You had such a positive energy about you. You will never be forgotten. Your eternal friend, Skyler Giles
