

Alexxiss Victoria Prince

June 23, 1994 - April 22, 2015

Alexxiss Victoria Prince, 20, passed away on April 22, 2015, in St. George, Utah. She was born June 23, 1994, in St. George, Utah to her proud parents Deborah and Ryan Prince. She left behind her protective and adoring big brother, Lance Bradley Prince and her loving and idolizing baby sister, Kiersten Nicole Prince. She also has a precious brother and sister that she cherishes, Abbie and Wyatt Prince. She is survived by her Grandma Prince, Grandma Stone and Grandpa Hester and she has many Aunts, Uncles and Cousins that are all very special to her. She is preceded in death by her loving Grandfathers, Joseph Merle Prince and Ronald Jaye Stone. I'm sure they and many others welcomed our sweet angel with open arms.

Alexxiss is a beautiful free spirit. She loves nature and is very spiritually enlightened with the universe. She has a passion for Sacred Geometry, Reiki, Chakra's, Spirit Science and such. She is the sweetest girl ever, she would give her last piece of bread to help someone in need. She is truly beautiful inside and out. She is kind and loving to all her family, friends and even strangers. She loves California, hiking in the redwoods communing with nature with her love and her puppy princess. She loves to explore the world and learn new things, she is so intelligent but never stopped her love of learning about the world and life. To know her was to love her, she is the heart of her family and all of her friends. The light in her eyes shines so bright with her beautiful soul. You can feel the love and positive vibes spreading out from Alexxiss, you didn't even need to be in the same room to be touched by her sweet spirit. The last few years of her life she suffered some losses that sent her into a spiral of sadness and bad choices. She will no longer suffer now with the pain of this world and she will never have to struggle just to survive again. She is in peace now with her loving family that went first to guide her. Alexxiss will be forever missed, being tragically taken from her family too soon. If her loss can help even one person to realize that this is not how they want to leave their loved ones behind, and hopefully it can give them the strength to change their lives, to choose to live a good strong life and be around for their family and friends to strengthen them in return: then Alexxiss would be doing what she always tried to do, help anyone in any way she could with her compassion, love, strength and support.

The viewing will be held on Saturday, April 25, 2015 at 12:30 pm at Serenity Funeral Home 1316 S 400 East #A3 St. George, UT. Followed by a memorial tribute at 2:00 pm at Alexxiss' home, 1015 S. River Road #15, St. George, UT 84790. We encourage everyone to bring any picture's you may have shared with Alexxiss during her fun life experiences to share with her family.

HA

“ I remember when I first met Alexxiss, my first thoughts were, wow!! She's very beautiful. She first told me when I met her that she liked me and loved that I was with her brother. She had told me I changed him. I had no idea what she meant at the time but now I do. It's a good change. She told me that I kept the peace between them and to me that was big. I'm happy I got to be apart of her life even if it was for a brief second. It's been raining since your passing and my grandfather had told me, when I was very young that it was the tears of someone that had passed. Rest in paradise Alexxiss. You will be missed by all.
