

Alice Fletcher

March 13, 1924 - January 4, 2015

Alice Fletcher, 90, of St. George, died January 4, 2015, at home with her daughter and son at her side. She was born March 13, 1924, in Salt Lake City, UT to Clarence Gardiner and Edna Jackson Gardiner. Alice met her future husband at a dance for servicemen at the air force base in Salt Lake City. They dated for three weeks until he was shipped out to a base in Louisiana. Three weeks later her mother arranged a ride for her with an acquaintance to Louisiana. The day she arrived they were married.

Alice was raised in Salt Lake City and lived briefly in Beaumont, TX on two occasions. She was a graduate of South High School in Salt Lake City and retired from Utah Power and Light. Her passions were playing bridge, and boy was she good! She also loved gambling in Mesquite. She was kind, loving and never forgot a birthday! She loved purple iris and the sunshine of St. George.

She is preceded in death by her parents, spouse, and all of her siblings. She is survived by her four children: Charles (Carol) Fletcher, St. George, UT, Pat (Shanna) Fletcher, St. George, UT, Nancy Adams, Washington, UT, and Kerry (Dru) Fletcher, Salt Lake City, UT; her eight grandchildren: Shelly, Camille, Patrick, Alissa, Shanna, Stacey, Annie and Courtney; nine great-grandchildren: Allie, Curtis, Callais, Ethan, Ella, Nicholas, Anthony, Amelia, Brie, and her constant companion "Punkin" the cat. We love you "Alice the Great". You are our golden girl, heart, soul, and rock of the family! You will be dearly missed!

The family would like to thank Alpha Home Care and Hospice for their compassionate care. Scattering of ashes to take place at a later date.
