

Ann Dolores Knight

March 27, 1953 - November 28, 2021

Ann Dolores Knight returned to Heaven on Sunday, November 28, 2021. She was 68 years young and full of life and light.

Ann was born in Salt Lake City, Utah March 27, 1953, to Mary Louise Miller. She was adopted at age 2 by Victor Glenn Lloyd and is survived by her mother Mary Louise and younger sister Cora Le.

Ann was full of energy and would light up a room with her beautiful face and bright smile. She loved to have fun and laugh with her children and grandchildren. She learned at a young age, how to work hard and care for animals as she grew up on a small farm with her family in Washington City, Utah.

Ann took every opportunity to serve in her community of Hurricane and LDS Apple Valley ward, in many roles. She cared deeply for all animals, and it showed in her job at Desert Vet in Hurricane. She was passionate and hardworking when it came to helping pets and their owners.

Ann loved growing and cultivating plants and her vegetable garden. She was a master gardener and won many awards for her vegetables at the county fair and local Peach days. She was unique, beautiful and one of a kind. She will be dearly missed by her children and grandchildren as well as all who were blessed to know and love her.

Her life celebration and graveside dedication will be held on Friday, December 10, 2021, starting at 11 am at the Red Brick LDS church house in Hurricane, Utah.

Please donate to a GOFUNDME account in her name, in lieu of flowers.
