

Annie T. Moyer

June 1, 1935 - January 6, 2022

Annie T. Moyer, 86, passed away on January 6, 2022, in St. George, Utah. Mom was born on June 1, 1935, in Macon, Mississippi as the youngest of three children to Howard and Annie Charlton. She had met multiple health challenges over the past three years, but with such a strong spirit, she met them all with humor and grace.

She was raised near Birmingham Mississippi. After marrying Jesse Lynch Jr., she moved to California to raise her family. After 26 years of marriage, she married and since widowed by David Moyer.

She is survived by her four children: Michael (Wasco, CA), John (Lincoln MO), Deborah (Washington, UT) and Cheryl (Carlsbad, CA) along with 12 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren. She is survived by her brother Howard Earl Charlton.

She is preceded in death by her past husband (Jesse Lynch Jr.), her parents and sister (Doris Herring).

The family would like to thank Applegate Homecare and Hospice for the dedicated care given to her over the past two months, and the incredible nurses at Belle Terra Nursing Home.

A Celebration of Life will be held on January 15, 2022, at Westside Baptist Church, 2299 W 2000 N, St. George, UT at 4:30 p.m.

“Wow, do I miss my mom! She was humorous and would pick right back at you when you teased her. When she learned that she was terminally ill, she would see the song "Que Sara Sara by Doris Day. She knew the song from beginning to end and accepted her position. While she did, it was difficult to lose her. I struggle daily with her smell, my visits, my routine on a daily basis.
