“ He was an amazing father and husband who was very selfless, and he was always there for his kids, he loved his family more than can ever be expressed into words.as a child I played all kinds of sports , and can never recall My dad ever missing one of them even after he worked a 10 hour shift and fought traffic to get there. I do and always will miss him, he was a marine in Vietnam which he never spoke about and worked for the gov for all the years since , and didn't miss a day of work can I can think of ever. I love you Dad and can't wait to see you again in heaven. Love Bryan
