Beth Allen Laub Vance: Aunt Beth, Grandma (Grams)

After 97 years of living, the immortal Beth Vance finally “GOT OUT!” We are happy to announce that nobody had to shoot her, as she often requested. She died peacefully at her home in Las Vegas Nevada Monday March 2, 2015, with her loving grandchildren attending her final moments.

Beth was born November 29, 1917, in Evans, Utah. She was the 2nd child born to Olga Karren and William Arthur Allen. With four brothers, Kenneth, Fred, Reese and Jay, she was the only girl in the family, until 16 years later she was blessed with a sister, Jaleen.

Beth spent the majority of her life in Tremonton. She attended and graduated from Bear River High School. She married Rex Laub in the Salt Lake City Utah temple in 1936. They were married 31 years, until Rex passed in 1967. They had two sons, John and Jerald Laub. Beth outlived both of her boys, John 1989 and Jerry 1994. Beth married LaMont Vance in 1988. He was her companion until his death in 2001.

Beth was survived by 10 grandchildren; 24 great-grandchildren; 17 great-great-grandchildren; and her dear sister Jaleen Jones, of Mesa Arizona.

Beth outlived many loved ones in her long life. She was not happy being "left behind." There was undoubtedly a joyous celebration as she was reunited with her family members who preceded her in death, including: parents, William "Art" and Olga Karren Allen; spouses, Rex Laub and Lamont Vance; children, John and Jerald Laub; brothers, Kenneth, Fred, Reese and Jay Allen; grandchildren, Jason Laub, Tyler Roper, James Burnett.

“ Aunt Beth was such a wonderful cook! I will never forget the time she was visiting my family in Mesa and was attempting to teach me how to make a roux. I could barely spell "roux" let alone make a roux. I wrote her instructions on a mile-long piece of paper, which included handy tips like, "Just add some of this until it tastes right" or "whisk it until it looks like this. You'll be able to tell." I don't think so, Aunt Beth. She was a natural. I absolutely loved her sense of humor and her spunky personality. My dad frequently referred to me as "spunky." If by spunky he meant that I was anything like Aunt Beth, I'll take it as a huge compliment. Love you always Aunt Beth.

“ The last time Lynn and I were able to see Aunt Beth in person, she wanted to talk about her final wishes. She had been ready to "go" for awhile, and being Beth, she wanted us to know what she wanted, what we were supposed to do. and how to do it right! She told Lynn that when she finally "kicked the bucket" she wanted Steve and Lynn to bring a truck, roll her up in a nice, warm blanket, throw her in the back of the truck, use "tie-ons" so she would stay put, turn the radio up loud, and haul her back to Utah! She was such a "kick...always the life of the party! We love her so, and will miss her beautiful smile, her witty humor, her wonderful cinnamon rolls, and her genuine love for us...until we meet again... Love you, Aunt Beth! ❤️

“ I have so many happy memories of aunt Beth. I remember several summers where I was able to stay with her in Reno. She always made me feel so special I remember she made the best chocolate chip cookies I think I've ever eaten. And Beth with some bunch fun. She always made me feel so grown up when I was with her. She would talk to me like an adult, take me on errands with her and wait sit around and laugh. Although I am sad for those of us left behind who will miss her deeply I know that she's happy to be reunited with those she has lost her own family and for that I am grateful. I love you at Beth you've always been a joy in my life. Also I'm incredibly grateful to you Debbie for all the love and care you have shown Beth over the years you're just the best! My prayers and thoughts are with you over the next few days and weeks to come love Patti

“ My hero, my fun, spunky, sassy, talented, and loving grams is now at peace.

I was very fortunate to spend the past 20 months caring for her in my home.

No one could make me laugh harder, or allow me to be myself more than grams.

She shared her life with all of us, and we were all so LUCKY to know her.

I already miss her quick wit and that smile.

I am a strong person because she taught me how to be strong.

I am a kind and compassionate person, because she showed me how.

I am prone to laugh and "return serve" because of her example.

I love to cook because she was the best cook I ever met!

I loved to dance because she bought me my first pair of ballet slippers.

I often laugh instead of cry, because grams said it is better and wont hurt my head!

I LOVE pink.... she only knew one color!

I think CHRISTMAS should be over done... ALWAYS..... She did....

I love big band music because of her stories of dancing to the "BIG bands"

I over feed everyone..... that is all I know how to do....

I give of myself daily, because my grandma led by example.

I can manage on very little because it was important to her

I love to sing the oldies because she did it with me...

I depend on my Lord and Savior because my grams loved Him too.

I have to have a CLEAN organized home, because grams told me that is how it's done!

I am who I am today because my Grandma Beth loved me enough to share her life with me.

Go dance to that music, see all that light and everything beautiful, cook your favorite food, and hug all those around you.....

I will miss you, and will always love you my FUN grams...
