

Beverly Irene Fisher Elmer

November 14, 1933 - June 24, 2019

Beverly Irene Fisher Elmer

November 14, 1933, to June 24, 2019

Beverly Irene Fisher Elmer passed peacefully in her sleep at Seasons Health and Rehab in Saint George Utah. Beverly was born in Wichita Kansas to Raymond Henry Fisher and Helen Marie Prescott Fisher. She spent some of her childhood in different states but grew up in California. In 1950, she married Gene E LaRue and had three girls. She later moved on to marry Clarence Pike and have her last 2 children.

Beverly lived a very happy life. She worked many different types of jobs and loved being surrounded by her family. She loved cooking and baking, and was a very good at it. She soon met her new love and eventually moved to Mesquite, Nevada. She returned to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and made it a huge part of her life. She took a job doing temple work and it became her passion. She was loved by so many and even more so her family.

Beverly is survived by: her five children: Donna (Joseph) Miner, Robin (Doyle) Higgins, Karin (Robert) Robbins, Beverly Anne (Patrick) Dickinson, Robert "Bob" E Pike (Ginger McClure), 20 Grandchildren, 55 great-grandchildren, and 9 great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded on death by: her Mother, Father, her brother Robert, late husband Jack, and many others that loved her.

Services will be held 1 p.m. on Saturday July 6, 2019, at the Mesquite Stake Center, Located at 100 N. Arrowhead Lane, Mesquite, Nevada with a small luncheon to follow.