“ I remember Boyd when I was in Junior high. He was one of my most favorite teachers all through school. He was always happy and he and always had a smile. Us girls always swooned over how cute he was. As the years went by and I graduated from High School no matter whenever I saw him he always had a smile and friendly conversation. He made me a better person by showing to me what a great person and a great friend truly is. I dont think I will ever forget him. I really dont know if I learned a lot because there was a group of us that caused commotion quite often to get him to tell us stories. I think I learned more from him that way than out of the books. He could be very stern but mostly I felt like he cared for me as a person. I'm sorry he suffered so much in his later years. I hope all of his family can have peace and comfort at this time.
