

Bradley LaDell Sanders

March 20, 1987 - October 12, 2021

Bradley L. Sanders passed away in his sleep at his home in Cedar City, Utah, on October 12, 2021. Brad was born on March 20, 1987, in St. George, Utah, and was raised in nearby Hurricane, Utah, where his family has pioneer roots.

Brad was the fourth son born to David and Arla Sanders, and, like his older brothers, was quite skilled at incrementally testing the patience of his parents with typical small-town mischief, (the nature of which may or may not be disclosed by his older brothers at this time).

Brad was diagnosed with Type 1 diabetes in his early teens and struggled with his health as a result. Despite this, he was a hard worker and sought to help those in need around him.

Never one for the books, school, and study-- although he did graduate from Millcreek High School--Brad instead enjoyed tinkering, whether it was with small engines, electrical equipment, or cars, and he was a master of "Bradley-rigging" things to work with limited parts or tools available. Brad enjoyed the outdoors, especially fishing, and preferred the peace in the mountains away from the busy shuffle and stress of daily life.

When Brad was 7, his youngest brother, David Jr., was born with physical handicaps. Brad helped his little brother get ready for bed when David Jr. was a toddler, helped him learn to walk, and helped with babysitting both David Jr. and his younger sister, Monica.

Brad is survived by his fiancé Breanna Collinwood and daughter Alayna Marie Sanders of Cedar City, Utah, and two sons, Braxton Bradley Sanders, and Mikhael Martin Sanders, from a previous marriage to Savanna Collis. Brad is also survived by his parents David and Arla Prisbrey Sanders of Hurricane, Utah, and brothers Trevor (Rachael) of Spanish Fork, Utah; Trenton (Claudia) of West Bountiful, Utah; Wesley (Amy) of Richfield, Utah; David Jr. of Hurricane, Utah; his only sister Monica of Washington, Utah; Grandma Janice Sanders of Hurricane, Utah; 11 nieces and nephews; and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Brad was preceded in death by maternal grandparents, LaDell and Fern Prisbrey, of St. George, Utah; maternal uncle Kelly Jerome Prisbrey; paternal grandfather Mart Lynn Sanders of Hurricane, Utah; and paternal uncle Carl Edward Sanders.

A viewing will be held Saturday, October 23, 2021, from 9:00-10:45 AM at the LDS Chapel located at 320 North 3400 West, Hurricane, Utah 84737. The funeral will be held immediately thereafter from 11:00 AM-12:00 PM. The graveside burial service will be at the Hurricane City Cemetery following the funeral.

To support Brad's three young children, the "Brad Sanders Memorial Account" has been established at America First Credit Union. Financial donations can be made to this account at Account Number 9121625.

“ Brad has always had such a kind heart . I thought he was such a genuinely wonderful person . I literally am still in shock God called him home so early . He had so many hopes and dreams he was trying to work on . I lost my son at 31, 11 years ago. Brad always felt sad about that and would give me hugs on difficult days . He was Dear
My deepest condolences to you all! You are in my thoughts daily . Sending prayers and big hugs.
You will be truly missed my friend  I love you!

Brad was so happy to have a Management position at Pinewoods . It made him feel so good that his family was proud of him. He was on top of the world ! He had such deep love and admiration for his parents, all his children, his siblings, and Brianna. He strived to be his best . The job and Diabetes took a toll sometimes but he would get back up and regain his footing . Had to share that one last memory , there are so many. Thinking of Brad I always think of love of his family .

“ Brad was an amazing cousin. I loved visiting Aunt Arla's house, so I could play with Brad.
When I had an eating disorder in high school, Brad and Trent came to visit me just to be with me, give me hugs, and support me in my struggles. That meant so much to me.
I am so so sad I didn't get to have one more big bear hug from him. I guess I'll have to wait until we meet again for one of those.
Brad had the biggest heart. See you later Brad, love you.
