“ I meant Carl once, he was living in southern Utah, his father introduced me to his son. His father, Frank, was quite a person. He had many things that he shared. The most memorable of Frank was when Frank and I bought this 26 foot wooden boat in Tacoma, WA. We never finished repairing it but had fun doing what we did.

Carl looks exactly like his father.

“ Carl was a wonderful father and support to his kids...not to mention many of us rowdies that were always at the house. Thanks for raising great kids and being an out standing man. He will be missed! Much respect!

“"Moose"...Strong. Stubborn. Funny. Loyal. A man with many talents and abilities. His love for his work and his family was obvious to all that met him. What a powerful spirit in life. He will be missed. God bless!
