

Carolyn Cox

October 2, 1956 - December 1, 2024

Carolyn Cox, age 68, passed away unexpectedly on December 1, 2024, at 9:11 a.m. in St. George, Utah.

Carolyn was born to Eldon Cox and Elva Myrle Cox in Provo, Utah. She was a devoted disciple of Jesus Christ and spent her life in service to others. She served in many church callings over the years and was deeply honored to serve an LDS mission in Little Rock, Arkansas—a time she often reflected on with gratitude and joy.

Born with a heart for others, Carolyn pursued a career in social work and counseling, where her unique gift for making people feel loved and accepted left an indelible mark on countless lives. She cherished her work and her clients, always going above and beyond to make a positive difference.

Family was at the center of Carolyn's life. She was a beloved sister to her brothers Dave Cox, Doug Cox (Holly), and Brad Cox. As an aunt, Carolyn had an extraordinary bond with her nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews, who often described her as a second mother. She delighted in supporting and loving them, creating memories they will treasure forever.

Carolyn's unwavering faith, compassion, and selflessness were a source of inspiration to all who knew her. She will be deeply missed but fondly remembered for her kindness, her radiant spirit, and her ability to make everyone feel valued.

The family also wishes to express gratitude to Intermountain Health Hospital and the Staff of the ICU for their care and compassion!

“ Carolyn was one of the kindest, most non-judgmental humans I've ever met. She was a true powerhouse and a wonderful soul. Our little family was lucky to know her.

“ From our very first phone call I felt this wonderful connection with Carolyn. Upon our first meeting it was like we had known each other for ever. As soon as we hugged each other it was the most precious, magical moment I had ever had in my life. It was like hugging a sweet marshmallow, or a fluffy cloud, I felt safe and knew she was special, I knew I could trust her with my secrets. My heart is breaking and I will miss her terribly. God blessed me by putting you in my life Carolyn, may you R.I.P.

“ I met Carolyn at a time in my life that I needed her education, her insight, her compassion , amd her professional prowess with trauma work more than I had ever needed someone to guide me in my life. She kept me grounded. Her validation and wisdom were priceless. Those hours spent in her office will forever be held as very sacred. More recently, she began a far too brief journey working with my daughter to navigate her neurodiversities. Carolyn was the lady for the job. I adore and love her so much. She will be missed as a friend and as an expert in her field. I love you Carolyn! You have been a ministering angel to me and Maya. God bless you sweet friend!

“ Carolyn Cox was a beautiful and such a very caring special lady! It is not surprising to see that she had the magic and ability of making so many people feel so loved including myself. She showed her love throughout the years as she sent sweet messages and bestowed such sweet thoughtful gifts to my kids (her great-grand niece and nephews). In my short 16 years of knowing her, She became one of my favorite Aunts! I could always instantly connect during visits and she shared with me some great knowledge of how to help kids, among other things. She will be missed greatly, but I'm sure she is beyond overjoyed to be on the other side with so many other special spirits. I'm sure she will be able to watch over everyone even more as the angel she has always been. ❤️

“ I was one of Carolyn's roommates at Ricks College 1975-1977. She was a special kind of girl who would always make sure you were okay and helpful. She did have the best laugh. 💕 I did most of the cooking but she loved to bake brownies and her favorite lunch was hamburger pork and beans. I wish all the family a peace knowing she is with our Lord. 🙏

“ I’m the second of the seven Hicks kids. Carolyn came into our lives exactly when we needed her most. Our mother left in 1984, when we kids ranged in age from 2 to 14 years old. Carolyn came in as the world’s best nanny and was there for the transition when my parents divorced, and stayed on for many years. She loved us through heartbreak and disappointment as our mother drew further away. After she no longer nannied for us, Carolyn was still a member of our family. She supported us, coming to graduations, family parties, and other events.

I will always remember Carolyn’s laugh and her hugs. She listened to us, loved us, and took care of us when our own mother didn’t. Carolyn told us stories, prayed with and for us, laughed at our shenanigans, took me to take my drivers test, and listened to our tween and teen drama. She was always there anytime we needed her. She was compassionate, kind, gentle, and loving. We will miss her so much. She truly was a member of our family.

For so many years, when I came home from school, she would be there. If one of us needed bandaging or someone to talk to, she was there. She introduced me to some great books, taught me so many things and set an example of how to be a true disciple of Jesus Christ. When we lost our brother Dave in 2020, she mourned with us. I’m sure if she sees him on the other side, the reunion will be joyful. Until we join her, we will miss Carolyn very much.

“ When we were living in the Lee Ward, I put together a cookbook for the ward. Carolyn contributed a recipe that our family has loved over the years. It is the most cooked from the cookbook. It is 'Zesty Italian Chicken' and every time I make it, I think of her. She was wonderful to me and our family and I consider her to be a good friend.

“ I have so many memories of watching Carolyn serving and helping others, this one she helped my youngest daughter and I. Driving back to Texas from BYI-I in my daughter Geo Metro the clutch started going out after Ogden. It was late evening and not sure what to do I called Carolyn (this was when she lived in SLC) she said come to my place and stay and we can find someone in the morning to work on the car. We stayed 2 nights and enjoyed friendship and kindness while waiting for the car to be fixed. She wouldn't let me give her anything for her hospitality, that was just the way she always was helping others and making them feel so loved and comfortable in accepting her help and love. She was the Mother to us all at college, giving advice, friendship and love. We all must of tired her out at times coming to her with problems or for advice but she would just smile lovingly and listen as we poured out our hearts. We've kept in touch all these many years because she just makes you her family. I will miss you so Carolyn, but I'm sure you are having a wonderful reunion.
