“ Ah Cathryn, a hundred times I said to Paul or Sharon, or Charlotte or Merrilyn that the "Rock-a-babes" needed to get together and sing those contest songs, just for old time's sake. And now, you've left and I am so sad. I so loved your rich deep voice, and tried to emulate it for years. If your family no longer has our contest recording from the Shriener Auditorium in LA (was that 1962?), I do have it digitally and would be happy to share it. You graduated from KHS, and I have not seen you since. And yet, I have never forgotten you and guessed that when I'd next see you, I'd be filled with delight. And so now, in some other realm, we may be one day be humming and strumming together. What a hoot that would be. With deep fondness, Susana (SuLee) Young, Kanab.

I, too, haven't seen my cousin, Cathryn, for many years, but I, too, have never forgotten her. I remember being a 7th grader and she a senior and I thought she was the most beautiful person I had ever seen. I've wanted to look her up for years and now she is gone and I've learned a valuable lesson. Don't put these things off!! I enjoyed reading your quote and remember you very well, too, SuLee:). My thoughts and prayers go out to Cathryn's family. Love, Della Crosby Chatwin
