

Clara D. Cobbs

December 30, 1924 - March 30, 2014

In Loving Memory
of
Clara Damron Cobbs

Clara was the proud mother of Bernice, Anna Louise and Katherine. They gave her 16 grandchildren which in turn produced 36 great grandchildren and then another 17 great great grandchildren. She had quite the clan. Born and raised in Pikeville Kentucky and after bouncing around to a few other locales and back and forth to Kentucky and Utah she settled with Louise for her final years.

She was quite the spunky lady, she could be sassy and snarky but there was a sweetness and caring side well. She also liked to have fun.

She always had to have a garden and chickens, she even broadened her horizons with a cow and a pig. Baby, the cow, was loved by all us grandkids and we begged her not to kill her. She waited until we were all at school and then served him for dinner. I remember asking her if I could have a horse and in her usual manner told me "You can't eat a horse."

She was quite the firecracker. She was known to pull a gun on a biker or chase a 800 puond pig down the street with a stick. She didn't put up with much from anyone but she did make sure to remember all the kids for Christmas and Birthdays.

She also loved to dance and many times could be found in the kitchen dancing to her oldies. I asked her to hang in there until she was 90, and not only did she tell me no, she did it in her own time and in her own way. That's Grandma.

She is preceded in death by her parents and brothers and her husband.
