“ I have a family reunion and am not able to make it to her funeral. But I want to express my condolence to you. What a wonderful lady Colleen was! One memory that really stands out is from my youth. I was walking home in the summer without any shoes on. The road was hot and I was running to get home more quickly. I fell down and scraped myself up and burned myself a little on the hot tar. It was right close by her house. Apparently she saw me fall. She rushed out, helped me into her house, doctored me up, gave me a drink of water, then took me home. She was so thoughtful and kind. She went out of her way to be friendly to me all the time. You have an amazing mother and grandmother. May the Lord bless you to find peace and comfort.
