I knew Corwyn very well. He had a zeal for life, and certainly loved a challenge. Looking at his picture says it all. He had a smile that said " I'm not a dummy like you think, but bring it on." I knew Corwyn almost like a brother. I guess I should because he was my uncle and I was 2 yrs older than him. I was living with him and his dad & mom when his mother (my grandmother) passed away. That was a very sad time for Corwyn because he dearly loved his mother. They were very close. Oh by the way...how many of you knew how good Corwyn was at tetherball. He beat me everytime. I miss him and his mother very much. See you again in the Resurrection.- Lynnette S. Tapia.
