

David Farnham

July 14, 1952 - December 18, 2014

David George Farnham of St. George, UT, age 62, passed away December 18, 2014, in St. George, UT. He was born July 14, 1952, in Albuquerque, NM, to Herman and Edna Turner Farnham. He married Jo Lou Farnham on March 26, 1993.

Our most beloved husband, father and grandfather has ascended to his Heavenly Home due to kidney failure. He was the most kind, sweet, lovable and funny man. He was a humble man of undeniable faith. His funny jokes and random silly songs will be missed. Even in sickness he kept his humor, kind heart, wisdom and strength. His strength was something he gave to each person that knew him but mostly the family he raised. He was a skilled mechanic and he loved truck driving, it allowed him to live his dream of traveling and seeing the country. Although limited, he would always try to do anything he could to help. He always learned a lesson in his trails and shared his wisdom, which made us respect and understand him for the man that he was. He will be missed dearly.

He is survived by: his wife Jo Lou, 12 children, Timm Simpkins, Ed (Becca) Farnham, James (Alexis) Simpkins, Paul Farnham, Cyndee (Zac) Jacobsen, Crystal (Stephen) Sindhu, Matt (Cristina) Farnham, Colleen (Shawn) Rushton, Aaron (Krista) Farnham, Charity (Clint) Pope, Melissa (Kyle) Bird, and Melanie Schmitt. He leaves a legacy of 37 grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, son-in-law and grandson.
