“ I was very privileged to know Dave and Marcia when they lived in Padre Lakes. She was a darling and he was the very best gospel doctrine teacher I ever had. They were both very much loved and admired and missed!

“ Grandpa David was a gentle giant. We are so grateful for the love and companionship he showed our Grandma Verda. He performed our temple sealing in the Las Vegas Temple and is the reason I started to play the ukulele. He never missed an opportunity to give a hug and tell you he loves you. He will be missed dearly. We love you!

“ I remember that David was working on the farm and a tractor tipped over and trapped him beneath it. His father, Henry lifted it off him by himself. David was badly injured and was in serious condition for some time. We all wondered how Henry had the strength to lift the tractor but knew he had Divine intervention. We all felt David had been saved for something special and his life lived proved that to be true. He spoke at the funerals for my parents and always provided peace and comfort for us. Our family will miss his gentle spirit. Jay Sant
