

Don Wallace Stewart

October 13, 1933 - August 13, 2024

Donald Wallace Stewart of Dammeron Valley, Utah passed away on August 13, 2024, at age 90. Don was born in Las Vegas, Nevada in 1933, to John and Evelyn Stewart. He married Margaret Young in 1963.

Don grew up in the small town of Goodsprings, Nevada and Las Vegas where he graduated from high school in 1951.

Don lived in Las Vegas and Reno, Nevada; Klamath Falls, Oregon; Kanab, Utah; and Dammeron Valley, Utah. He worked as a millwright for over 40 years helping build and overhaul hydroelectric dams and power plants as well as other heavy construction projects in the western United States. There were few things related to mechanics and construction that he didn't know how to do. In his spare time he enjoyed fishing and hunting, cooking, gardening, gathering firewood on the mountain, and reading.

Don is survived by his wife Margaret. He was preceded by his parents John Wallace Stewart and Evelyn Jane (Kemple) Stewart and his sisters: Regina Rapp, Erva Kennedy, and Lila Littlejohn. Don has three children, John Stewart (Leisa) of Joseph, Oregon; Mike Stewart (Denise) of Dammeron Valley, Utah; and Rosemary Stewart of Nibley, Utah. Don has four grandchildren.

The family would like to thank Dixie Hospice for their kind and thoughtful care of Don in his final days.

Don will be interred in the Veyo, Utah cemetery at a later date.

Family and friends are invited to share condolences online at: www.serenitystg.com. Arrangements are under the direction of Serenity Funeral Home, St.

George of Southern Utah. 435-986-9100.
