“ I know this is being posted YEARS after his passing.... but Sue I hope you see this! The most famous words in house hold..... “I hear somebody’s having a birthday!” We couldn’t wait for or Hagendaas when we were old enough. And mom always took her cut... haha. I hope you know how special you and Don were to the Wilson clan! We loved you guys so much! We still suspect you as the secret Santa that delivered our first DVD player.. but never really had proof. Thank you for being in so many of our childhood memories! Mom passed in 2013. I’m sure Mom, Don, and now Dave Lambourne are up there having a church talent show of their own and waiting for those of us here that miss them! If you have Facebook I’m SJ PW Payeur these days. I’d love to chat! Sending love and blessings. SarahJane Wilson

“ Dear Susan: I was just reading Don's life sketch which was beautifully done. i noticed that we are the same age and that I was born three months before Don, and that Ted and I were married three months ahead of you and Don. You both have been extraordinary examples of loving neighbors, Ward members, and faithful to-the-end children of Heavenly Father in the faith of Jesus Christ. I miss him already but are thankful you are with us and that I can continue to learn from you and be strengthened in my testimony from your strong testimony. I am here whenever you would like to go to lunch or just take a walk. May the peace of the Lord rest upon you as you move forward. Love you, Margo and Ted Groves

“ Don, you were too young to depart this life. I remember when my wife and I first moved into the ward, you and your wife invited us over for dinner and made us feel so welcome. I noticed that you did that for everyone who was new. You were always cheerful and lifted others around you. You will be missed. If you happen to run into my wife up there, tell her hi for me

“ Sorry to hear the news about Don's passing. I'll always remember Bro. Boyle as a good man that had a big heart and truly loved serving the Lord. He was a great role model for me and was someone that I always respected. I know he had a love for cars and us younger kids thought that was pretty cool. Rest in peace Bro. Boyle, you will be missed. “ Dear Susan and Family,

Even though we have been anticipating Don's passing, we are deeply saddened to see the day come. We are encouraged and buoyed up by his upbeat attitude. I wonder who was comforting who. I have not known anyone who was better prepared to pass to the next life than was Don. For me, I will always remember the summer nights sleeping out in the back yard in Hyde Park, the impatient anticipation for the homemade root beer to cure, swimming in the canal at Berry Hollow, the hot rods, and the never-ending positive messages. More than all that, I will remember his steadfast testimony of Jesus Christ and of the reality of the resurrection and the eternal nature of the family. I share that testimony and hope you have comfort in the same knowledge.

May God be with you and give you peace.
