

Donna Mae Dillingham

August 23, 1940 - December 27, 2024

Donna passed away in her home in Hurricane, Utah on December 27th, 2024. She was born on August 23, 1940, in Saratoga, Wyoming to Pearl Banks and Kenneth O. Kelso. After spending her first 12 years in the Rock Springs and Saratoga area, her family moved to Salt Lake City, where she graduated from East High School. In 1959, while living in Salt Lake City, she married Carl R. Dillingham. They eventually retired to Hurricane, Utah where just this year they celebrated their 65th anniversary.

She was happiest when she was together with her family, especially boating and waterskiing, and walking and hiking in the red rock of southern Utah. Right up to the very end, she took great pride in getting her 20,000 steps a day, even if it was just walking through her Lava Bluff neighborhood.

She is survived by her spouse, Carl, daughter, Carla (Greg) Owen, son, Kyle (Margo) Dillingham, sister Shirley Huffman, numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and earlier this year celebrated her first great-great granddaughter.

She was preceded in death by her parents, brothers Robert and James.

The family would like to thank the nurses and staff from the Intermountain Cancer Center in St. George, as well as Intermountain Homecare & Hospice.

As per Donna's wishes, there will be no services.

Tribute Wall

MF

“ Want to send my condolences - her smile and love will be missed by many. I'm so grateful that my daughter and grandkids were blessed by her love.

Monique Memmott Fausett - January 07, 2025 at 10:10 PM