

Dwight Pectol

December 31, 1952 - September 17, 2016

Dwight Pectol, 63 passed away peacefully on September 17, 2016, at his home in Washington, Utah after battling liver cancer. He was born on December 31, 1952, in Murray, Utah to Willard Dwight Pectol and Beulah May Gifford Pectol.

Dwight attended Dixie High School where one of his greatest highlights was playing basketball under the direction of Coach Lay. In his junior year, the Flyers took the State Championship. Also in high school Dwight was well known for his 1930 model A Ford.

On March 8, 1975, Dwight married the love of his life Lisa Davis in St. George, Utah. Lisa and their unborn child died November 7, 1976, as a result of her having brain cancer. He later married Lorraine Gardner and had one son Joshua Dwight Pectol.

Dwight had a great love for the outdoors where he enjoyed hunting, camping, and fishing. He also had a passion for gardening and Honky Tonk country music.

Through the years Dwight had several jobs, but his true love was woodworking. Since 1970 Dwight, with his father, owned and operated Pectol's Woodworking. He worked with his dad for over 35 years doing carpentry, building beautiful furniture and cabinets. He was a true Master Woodworker. Dwight loved helping people and was loved by all. He will be greatly missed.

He is survived by his son Joshua (Jamie) his three grandchildren, Carter, Owen and Adelyn, his mother Beulah Pectol, sister Judy Hoffman (Joe), brother Winferd Pectol (Joni) and sister Brenda Sugden (Dale), and many nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his wife Lisa Davis, father Willard Pectol, sister Bonnie Pectol and brother Joey Pectol.

Funeral service will be held on Saturday, October 1, 2016, at the LDS Chapel, 82 N. Main Street, Washington, Utah.
