

E. LaMaun Sorensen

June 7, 1922 - December 6, 2021

LaMaun Sorensen passed away on December 6, 2021 of natural causes at the age of 99. LaMaun was born June 7, 1922 in Koosharem, Utah but grew up and lived in Antimony, Utah where he married and raised his family for 25 years.

He was born to Iris Montague and J. Ezra Sorensen. LaMaun served in WWII as a decorated Marine, and after returning home to Antimony, was attracted to a young woman living nearby in Angle, Utah.

He married Pattie Jolley in 1948, and they have five children: Michael Sorensen (Sylvia) Las Vegas, Yolanda Sarale St. George, MaunaKae Pearl (Josh) Ohio, Sydnee Dickson (Jim) Salt Lake City, Russell Sorensen (Carol) St. George.

LaMaun wore many hats as a BLM surveyor, rancher, mayor, etc. while entertaining friends with a gift for telling stories and jokes, often being asked to be the master of ceremonies at events and speaking at funerals! He also loved new cars and loved to drive fast, so he worked selling cars on the side in the winter to support that. He also could fix anything mechanical.

His parents built, owned and operated the original Antimony Merc, gas station and post office, where LaMaun and Pattie helped them and took over when they retired. LaMaun also held many positions in the church (Bishopric, High Council, Young Men's President, Stake Sunday School President for 9 years, Branch President) both in Antimony, and when the family later moved to St. George in 1968.

LaMaun got a job driving heavy equipment during the development of the Bloomington Country Club and helped build the pond, golf course and the riding stables, where he later worked after the development was finished. He then went to work at Zions National Park for the next 15 years before retiring. LaMaun had a group of the same close friends throughout the years that he enjoyed immensely. Unfortunately, they all passed away before him, and he deeply missed them. Fortunately, LaMaun had a loving wife who took great care of him from the day they married until the day he passed on.

LaMaun had two sisters: Varis Gleave (Otto), both deceased, and Wanda Sevy (Russell – deceased). He took great joy in his 18 grandchildren, and had 20 great grandchildren, and 7 great great grandchildren at the time of his death.

Funeral services will be on Saturday, December 11, 2021, at 11:00 a.m. at the 520 E. 700 South. LDS Chapel in St. George, UT. A visitation will be held from 9:30 to 10:30 prior to the service. Interment with Military Honors will follow at the St. George City Cemetery.

“ *Pattie,
I just saw this on LaMaun. I am so sorry for your loss. This has not been a good year for alot of us, losing love ones. I remember LaMaun from Zion. He worked with me and my husband Richard for many years. He was a kind man and he could always make me laugh. Usually when I needed it most. I'm sending love and prayers for you and your family.

“ I loved Uncle Maun very much, and cried all afternoon when I heard he had passed away. I remember him teasing me as a child as we drove through Kingston Canyon and he called me a mugwamp. I was so upset I hit him in the arm every time he called me that, and he would just laugh :). He loved to tease and was so charismatic. Everyone loved to be around him. Our family is so proud of the service he rendered to our country, and the service he rendered to his community throughout his lifetime. My dad is especially proud of LaMaun’s patriotism, and he said he always enjoyed visiting with him. My mom had a very special place in her heart for him, and I am sure she welcomed him with her parents and grandparents on the other side. Our love and prayers for comfort and peace are with Aunt Pattie and all of Uncle Maun’s children and grandchildren at this time. Sincerely, Michelle Millett Noriega

“ I remember when he worked with my dad Wesley Dennett at Zion. He was such a respectable man. Always so nice and friendly and kind to all.
