

Ebba Adams

May 1, 1931 - February 25, 2026

Ebba was a very independent, strong woman. She married John Quincey Adams V on 11/26/1955. They had their first child in Denmark before moving to the United States. She was proud of her Danish heritage.

She is survived by her daughters Joan Adams, Jane White, Janet Adams and son-in-law Curtis Truman. Her grandchildren Cary Ford, Katie Adams, Jeremy White, Shannon Schear, Christopher White, Jessica and Dutch Staheli and Shelly Morrow, Bowdie Heaps. Her great grandchildren: Leah Ford, Ivy Adams, Ian Thornton, Sierra Walsh, Isis White, Axton Schear, Aiden Schear, Taylee White, Landen White, Karlie Manwaring, Treygen Manwaring, Isiah Heaps, Paiyten Heaps and Sadie Heaps and her fur baby granddaughter China.

Preceded in death: Her parents Holger and Gudrun Simonsen. Her husband John Quincy Adams V and her brothers Hans Jorn and Kaj Simonsen.

Ebba worked as a nanny for a family in England. She apprenticed as a sales professional. She was a church secretary at St. Stephen's Lutheran Church. She retired after working fifteen years at Amtrak.

Ebba loved the outdoors and enjoyed trips camping, houseboating, river rafting, national parks, traveling back and forth to Denmark. She took train trips with her work friends and a cruise to Alaska. Ebba spent her retired years attending and participating in her grand-children's and great-grandchildren's various, activities and events. Ebba was so proud to be a grandma and great grandma and loved spending time with them all.