

Edward Lucian Perry

February 19, 1931 - October 8, 2016

Edward Lucian Perry passed away on October 8th 2016. He was born in San Francisco California.

He was preceded in death by: his parents William Perry, and Alice Vaurs Perry, his brother Raymond Perry, sister Jacqueline Perry Block, brother-in-law Jerry Block, and nephew Robert "Bobbie" Block. He is survived by: his daughter Alice-Marie Perry Singletary; his grandchildren: Rachel and Logan Singletary; his nieces: Alice, Shirley, Carol Block, and Michelle Vaurs as well as several great-nieces.

"Eddie" as his friend's called him was a fisherman. Going fishing was as important to him as breathing especially craw fishing. He also loved telling stories and making people laughed. Eddie volunteered in the past at the Catholic thrift store and was a member of St. George Catholic church and actually worked at the church as a janitor for the church in years past.

Eddie had been a resident of St George since 1976. Eddie never met a stranger and he will be missed. Services for him will be Monday November the 7th 2016, at 10 a.m. at the St. George Catholic church.
