

Edythe Faye Kessler

September 4, 1932 - October 2, 2016

Edythe Faye Kessler
St. George

Edythe Faye Kessler, 84, passed away peacefully Sunday, October 2, 2016 of natural causes, surrounded by her family. She was born September 4, 1932 in Ferndale, Michigan to Angus Levi Kinney and Janet Marie Stevens. Mom grew up in Ferndale, Michigan where she enjoyed being with her family. She graduated from Ferndale High School and then went on to a Business College.

Married to her first husband, Sam Hughes, they had three daughter together, their third being stillborn. Edythe raised her two daughters in Southern California where she later met and married William Kessler. They lived in Huntington Park, California. She is survived by her two daughters, Amy (Don) Kimball of St. George, UT; Janet (Ted) Nesberg of Munising, MI; 9 grandchildren, 13 great grandchildren, and 1 great-great grandchild.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Angus and Janet, her husband, William Kessler, daughter Edythe Faye Hughes, two brothers, Wiley James Kinney, Robert Kinney, grandson Brian Keith Kimball, and great-grandson Emmett Donald Stewart.

Mom had a kind heart, especially for animals. She devoted her life to rescuing, caring for and protecting her beloved cats.

The family would like to thank St. George Rehabilitation and Zion's Way Hospice for the care they gave her in her final days.
