

Eva Marie Cumming

April 17, 1919 - June 1, 2014

Eve was a daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt, and friend to those who knew and loved her. Her eyes would twinkle when she spoke to you.

Eve was born on April 17, 1919 to Lucy and Sam Hagendorfer. The home was filled with love, laughter, and good values. In 1938 she married Edward Coster in St. Anthony's Catholic Church, the same church her parents married in. In her mid twenties Eve began a modeling career and was under exclusive contract with Carmel Sommers of Hollywood California.

On August 15, 1962, Eve married Daniel Cumming. The couple was happily married until Danny passed away in 1974.

Eve enjoyed gardening, cooking, baseball, big band music, dancing, reading, knitting, crocheting and her afternoon glass of red wine. Her favorite color was red, she loved going to Wal-Mart on Sunday morning with her sister Mary. She loved having family and friends over for holidays, birthdays, family reunions, and her mother's 100th birthday celebration. Eve took pride in her home in Garden Grove California, where she received several Home of the Year awards. Eve adored her cat Luci Lu and Luci Lu adored her. Luci is now loved and spoiled by Eve's sister Agnes.

Sadly, Eve passed away on June 1, 2014 and is survived by her sisters, Mary Williams and Agnes Longaker, her children, Ronald Barron, Gary Barron (Belle), Patricia Grasham (Philip), sixteen grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and Luci Lu. We will miss you. You will always be in our thoughts and forever in our hearts.

Family and friends may make a memorial donation in Eve's name, to the Global Catholic Television at EWTN.com.
