

Fredrick Webb Barber

April 16, 1934 - September 24, 2017

Fredrick Webb Barber, 85, passed away peacefully surrounded by his family September 24, 2017, in Ivins, UT, from Parkinson's disease, at the home of his granddaughter. He was born April 16, 1932, in Hurricane, UT, to Frank and Doris Campbell Barber. Fred attended Hurricane High School where he met the love of his life Fawn DeMille. They were married August 3, 1951, in the St. George LDS Temple, they just celebrated their 68th anniversary. To that union was born two sons Morgan and Brad.

Fred Worked as a machinist at Kerr-McGee Chemical Corp. in Henderson, NV, for 40 years. Fred was an honored guest at NASA's Kennedy Space Center where he received the coveted Silver Snoopy Award for his contribution to the space shuttle program in connection with his work at Kerr-McGee. Fred was a quiet, humble, creative man who loved to use his talents to serve others. He could fix anything! Fred loved ketchup on everything, potatoes and gravy and anything chocolate. He made the best rice pudding you ever tasted and homemade bread.

Fred is survived by: his wife Fawn; sons Morgan (Marty) and Brad (Kate); six grandchildren; and many great grandchildren; his sisters Shirley Webb, Mary Alice (Kent) Fairbanks; and brother Kenny Barber. He was preceded in death by his parents and brother Dean.

The family would like to thank Alliance Hospice for their care and support.

A visitation will be held Saturday, September 30, 2017, from 11:00 a.m. to Noon at Serenity Funeral Home, 1316 S. 400 E. St. George, UT. Graveside services will follow at the Hurricane City Cemetery at 12:30 p.m.
