“ Gail was always so sweet and kind. She would bring patients to the doctors office who could not get there on their own. I'll always remember her positive attitude on life and how she always wanted to look her best. She was a special and classy lady. My love goes out to her dear family, who was her biggest treasure. Hugs:)

“ Gail,
I will always remember the wonderful Thanksgiving dinner you hosted at your home when we were growing up. Each year you baked pumpkin and pecan pies. They were so delicious. I also have great memories of your apricot fruit leather. Thanks for sharing your home, heart and food with us on many occasions. We will miss you. May you Rest In Peace.

“ Gail belonged to our Daughters of the Utah Pioneers Camp here in Hurricane and never missed until the last couple of months when she became unable to come. She was so very proud of her ancestors and often brought her scrapbook with pictures of them in it. She wanted to share. She was proud of her grandparent home that is across the street from the Hurricane Pioneer museum. It was the first house built here in Hurricane. We will miss Hail as we have for Christmas he last few months. Rest well Gail.
