

Galen J Allred

December 8, 1946 - September 26, 2021

Galen J. Allred passed away after a long battle with Parkinson's disease on September 26, 2021. He was born in Salt Lake City, UT on December 8, 1946, to Jay L. Allred and Wilma Lue Oldroyd.

Galen spent his early life in Lyman, Utah. The family moved to Henderson, Nevada when he was 5 years old and Galen was raised there. He was a 1965 graduate of Basic High School. Following graduation, he served an LDS mission in the Southwest Mexico Mission (1966-1968).

Galen married, Barbara Giles in the Manti Temple on September 6, 1969. Together they raised five children: Galen Bret Allred (Gia Andrus), Shelby Anne Carpenter (Eric), Jay Tyler Allred (Lisa Jensen), all of Kanarrville, Utah; Bobbi Saige Burns (Brian) of Ashburn, Virginia; and Giles Clay Allred, DVM (Krista) of Silver City, New Mexico.

They also have 16 grandchildren whom they love dearly: Laremi Brett Martino (Colton) & daughter Tracelynn of Heber City, UT, Grayson Ike Allred (Fiancée Jacie Etbauer) Edmond, Oklahoma, G. Bodrey Allred, Ryler Brock Allred; (Kanarrville, UT); E. Kyson Carpenter (Lecia) and daughter Codie Anne; McKade R. Cedar City, UT in 1970 to help his parents establish Cedar Aggregate Products. He also owned an excavation company, Allred Enterprises, and a concrete construction company Allred and Allred, Inc.

Galen also owned Galen Allred Club Lambs. He was a hobby farmer and raised and sold lambs for competitive livestock shows. His sheep were a reason for living as the Parkinson's continually took away what he could physically do.

Galen also served in two bishoprics, with Bishop Scott Anderson, and Bishop Thomas Sardoni and as a Ward Clerk for four additional bishops. He loved his calling as a High Councilman in the SUU Stake. He was also a scout master in Kanarraville, but his favorite job was working in the Primary.

The family wishes to thank Ethan Bunker for his kind and attentive care of Galen during his last week.

“ To Barbara and family. I am so sorry for your loss. I met Galen only a couple of days before Saige and Brian got married. I liked him from the start. I enjoyed sharing hunting stories with him, and hearing about hunting in Africa and New Zealand. I will always remember his visit to the lake house in northern Michigan. He loved fishing especially when he caught the biggest fish. He was loved by many and will be missed by most people that knew him.

*We will keep your family in our prayers.
