“ Gary was a dear dear husband to my 1st counselor in the Relief Society (Susan). When she was so sick in the hospital with seizures. He would sleep by her bed every night (except when it was my turn). Never complained, just held her hand even when she was seizing. He was the love of her life.

Even though we have been apart for 15 years, they still kept in touch with me. He knew so much about the gospel and was a wonderful teach/missionary. Will miss him dearly.

Best wishes to you Susan. I love you very much. You are the reason I am so active in the church (because of your Christ like attributes).

“ We have very fond memories of serving with Gary and Susan at the Family Tree Center in Park City. Thank you so much for giving us that opportunity by serving a mission together. Your enthusiasm for the Gospel of Jesus Christ and your testimony of the importance of family history work were a great asset to us and a blessing to those you served with, especially to us. We love you both and will pray for you, Susan, to be comforted. We know you will. Norm and Pauline Butterfield

“ Sue, My heart aches for you. Know you are in Joanna's and my prayers. You were both so kind to us. We looked at you as the sweetest couple. It's good to know the gospel is true and you'll only be apart for a short time, and the reunion will be sweet. Please let us know what we can do.

“ It is so nice to have served with Gary and you on Temple Square. You are both caring and unselfish people. I know he will be missed by the family. It is so nice to have the comfort of the holy ghost at this time. He lived a good life and served his Heavenly Father well. Prayers are being said for you and your family. Til you meet again, keep him and his testimony in your hearts.

“ I remember how happy and excited you were to tell me about Gary and your relationship. I was so pleased that you had found someone so special to share your life with. I am sad for both of you that your relationship on this earth cannot continue on together, but the good news is you'll be able to continue it together in the future. You deserved all the happiness that Gary brought to you while sharing his time on earth with you. I'm so very happy for you that you had this time together.

“ My wife and I, Patrick and Jovita Keller, were blessed to meet Gary and Sue not long after we joined the LDS church. I was assigned as their home teacher and tried to see them every month, even though they were always so busy. Usually on missions for the Church. I was responsible to teach them every month, however, it did not really turn out that way. Both Gary and Sue were so kind and loving to us and would generally end up teaching us. The farthest we had to go to home teach them from Las Vegas was Salt Lake City where they were serving a mission at Temple Square and were the supervisors, or more like the grandparents, to 150 sister missionaries. They took that teaching experience from me and instead taught us all about the history of the Church and the entire Temple area. We also visited them when they were missionaries in the Moapa Valley area and supervised the church property there and the water / springs. Again they taught us so much. Always, always, they were loving and caring to us and set a great example to us both. We will miss Gary here but know exactly what he is now doing, and that is more missionary work in the Spirit World. We hope that he can help teach Jovi's father who also just left us and was a good man, Jonas Baldomar. I think Jonas would love to have a teacher like Gary help him to learn the Gospel. God Bless and our very best to our favorite missionaries Gary and Sue.

I met Gary many years ago when I was teaching school at East Elementary, and was surprised to later become more acquainted when he met Susan in Las Vegas, Nevada. I was so happy for Susan to have found the love of her life. Please accept my condolences Sue. Families are forever, and the Lord blesses us in unknown ways as we miss our dearly departed.
