

Graham Bryce Halston

June 6, 1953 - January 23, 2020

Graham Bryce Halston (formerly Graham Levi; born Steven Neil Ward), age 66, died from liver complications on Thursday, January 23, 2020 in St. George, UT. Graham was born on June 6, 1953 in Las Vegas, NV to Neil J. Ward & Pauline Francis (McBerty) Ward. He was raised by his loving grandparents, Paul & Vera Leach. Graham worked as an architect/designer, homebuilder, and handyman. His American Craftsman style homes, incorporated his passion for his surroundings. Specifically, he loved the look of old mining buildings and used them for inspiration.

He had a passion for life, in all he did. Whether grilling, Jeeping, snow shoeing, kayaking, backpacking, or writing books; he did everything with tenacity and precision. Graham married the love of his life Julie Mitchell on September 28, 1991. They had many dogs, whom they loved dearly.

Graham is survived by his wife, Julie; mother-in-law, Shirley; brother-in-law, Mark (Cynthia); nieces Sarah, Mara (Robert), Tamara (Nathan), Lisa (Robby); and nephews Isaiah (Camie), Micah (Teresa), and Nephi (Briti). Memorial donations, in memory of Graham, can be made to Placer Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (Placer SPCA) 1482 Grass Valley Highway Auburn, CA 95603.

The family would like to express their thanks to Integrated Senior Home Healthcare and Hospice, with special thanks to Mesha, and Seasons Healthcare and Rehab for their loving care of Graham.

“ I didn't know much about Graham personally when I was little but always knew he was the nicest person, always smiling, always talking kindly & always serving everyone around him.

My memories are about amazing homes, delicious food and fun adventures like when they took us kayaking on a lake in the mountains and we took the boats out to rock islands and swam all day.
