

Graham Brad White

June 23, 1995 - February 24, 2019

Graham Brad White

Graham Brad White passed from this life on February 24th, 2019. He was born June 23rd, 1995 to Brad Jay White and Diana Dodd White, in Salt Lake City, Utah. He was 23 years old.

Graham lived his first few years in the Wasatch Front and then moved with his sisters and mother to Santa Clara, Utah in 2002. He was a graduate of Tuacahn High School (Class of 2014) and attended Dixie State University. He served an honorable mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in the Philippines. He was a member of the Santa Clara 2nd Ward, where he was currently teaching a Primary class, which he loved.

Graham had a great sense of humor – low key but hilarious! He was a hard and dedicated worker. He was very selfless and always looked for ways to serve others. He had a unique personality and style. He loved music and enjoyed creating films with his cousins. Camping, paddle boarding and hiking with his family and friends was a passion. He enjoyed food and loved to cook. He will be sorely missed.

Graham was preceded in death by his grandfather, Graham Dodd, and his Grandmother, Joyce Robinson White. He is survived by his mother and his father. His sisters, Jessica White Carter (Eric) and Emily Meagan White (fiancé Lex,) by his grandmother April Aaron Dodd Bardsley, and his grandfather Dr. Richard Jay White, and numerous cousins, aunts and uncles.

Graham will be forever remembered and loved. He is a part of our eternal family.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, March 2nd, 2019 at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints next to the Santa Clara Cemetery. The viewing will begin at 9:00am and will close at 10:30am. The funeral will begin at 11:00. Following the service the congregation will be invited to walk to the cemetery for the interment service.
