

Helen Walters Davis

July 26, 1927 - August 15, 2024

Helen (Walters) Davis was a resident of Saint George, Utah and passed away on August 15, 2024.

Born in Flat Rock, Ohio to William Henry Walters and Ella Ice Walters in 1927, she was the tenth of eleven siblings. She married and had six children. She resided in Sandusky, Ohio until she moved to Mesa, Arizona in 1984, she resided in Mesa and Queen Creek for over 20 years.

She also resided in Richland, Washington until she moved to Utah in 2010.

In loving memory of Helen Davis. She had a long life, was a wonderful mother and was loved by her family very much. She always worked hard to take care of her family, at times she worked more than one job. As a working mom and on her own, she couldn't travel a lot. Though living near Lake Erie, she took a memorable day trip on the ferry to Pelee Island in Canada. When she moved to Arizona and with more family and support, she had the opportunity to travel. She took many road trips with her family in Arizona and to Las Vegas, Nevada.

She also went on road trips to New Mexico, California, Oregon, Washington and Victoria, Canada. She also traveled along most of the Pacific Coast in a motorhome. Besides traveling, her favorite pastimes were reading mysteries, watching detective shows and old westerns.

Helen is survived by her son, Robert Louis Davis Jr, daughters, Susan Elaine Anson and Stacey Jo Timmons, sons-in-law; Tony (Susan) Anson and Matthew (Stacey) Timmons, daughters-in-law; Susan (John) Davis and Debra (Robert) Davis. She is also survived by her grandchildren; Monet, Ryan, Kyle, Justin, Shawn, Stefanie, Nick, Rob, Jennifer, David, Laurie and many great-grandchildren. Helen was preceded in death by three of her sons, Thomas Robert Davis, James Bradley Davis and John Michael Davis and also by her daughter-in-law, Diane Patricia Davis.

An interment of ashes to take place at the Tonaquint Cremation Garden in Saint George.
