“ Herb was a pillar in our community of Virgin, Utah, and loved by all. I remember when my husband and I moved here 15 years ago, how Herb consistently made and served us up pancakes at the 4th of July breakfast, was a dutch oven expert in other town celebrations, and a superb Animal Control person.

I have always loved and admired Herb and Nancy, and they made our town and my life better by their presence.

If I were to summarize Herb up in one expression, it would have to be that he had a heart of gold. He will certainly be missed by all of us, including my sweet neighbor Glenda Wilson, and myself.
