

James Harlow Wilcox

May 18, 1934 - September 17, 2017

James Harlow Wilcox, a beloved father and husband, returned home to our Heavenly Father on September 17, 2017 at the age of 83. Harlow was born in Ogden, UT on May 18, 1934 to Clyde and Blanche Wilcox, and raised in Farmington, UT. Following his graduation from Davis High School he attended BYU where he met his sweetheart Earlene Poulson. They were sealed in the Salt Lake Temple May 19, 1954. They were blessed with 11 children. Harlow enjoyed hunting, golf, playing scrabble with his brothers, and his extensive travels around the world. More than anything he enjoyed spending time with his family.

He built a successful company, Wilcox Masonry, with his sons. Harlow was respected for his hard work, honesty, and integrity. His love for Farmington led him to serve in civic duties in his later years. As a valiant member of the LDS faith, he served as bishop, high councilman, and various other positions.

After Earlene's passing, he was fortunate to meet and marry Sherry Keener. She embraced his family wholeheartedly and Sherry is deeply loved in return. Together they served in the Ogden Temple and later completed a service mission in Nauvoo.

Harlow is survived by: his wife Sherry, six siblings, his children Jean (Stephen) Strong, Marianne (Floyd) Jackson, Melia (Wayne) Rich, Lisa (Michael)

Christensen, Eileen (Wells) VanWagoner, Michelle (Curtis) Anderson, James (Courtne) Wilcox, David (Marianne) Wilcox, Kevin (Lori) Wilcox, Andrea (Roger) Ellis, Anjel (Dwayne) Hislop, 38 grandchildren and 31 great-grandchildren and counting. He was proceeded in death by his parents, wife Earlene and brother Cordell.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, September 23rd at 11:00 a.m. at the LDS church building 720 Nancy St., Ogden, UT. Friends may call Friday September 22nd 6 – 8 p.m. at the same location and Saturday from 10:00 – 10:45. Interment will follow at the Farmington Cemetery.
