“ I just love Janet! She was always so kind and generous. I have known her since I was a teenager. She was my Girl's camp counselor one year. No one was supposed to wear makeup, but Janet couldn't go without a pale pink lipstick. We young and ornery girls, actually all of us loved her, but rules are rules. The consequence for wearing makeup was to have makeup drawn all over your face! So, we got hold of her at our campsite and held her down to draw the makeup on her face, but we didn't have any makeup, so we used marking pens! She was such a good sport!!! She didn't poison any of us or get mad at us at all! I don't think it was permanent ink. It was such a long time ago -- about 47 years ago. She made the best treats and worked so hard to find a way to keep me warm that year when I had to sleep unprepared on a cot where the cold air came up from underneath. She was delightful and fun!

Later in life my husband and I lived in the same Ward at church as she did. My husband had grown up with her kids older kids and knew her longer than me, but I learned many gentle and tender lessons about life from her over the years from personal conversations, and just watching how she was a good mother to her children, and a good friend to others. She was always kindly serving others. I have the pleasure of knowing all of her children, and I can say they are a living legacy to the kind of wonderful woman and mother Janet is/was. Each of them are wonderful people! She has a great family!

Janet always had a ready and kind smile for me and so many others! I really have missed her since she moved to Utah, but kept track of how she was doing through Bill and Leann over the years. Janet was dearly loved by so many people in addition to her family, me included. Love and hugs to Janet as she continues on her eternal journey -- 'til we meet again.

To all of her family: Our love and prayers for peace and comfort at this sad time are coming from our hearts to each of you. May you find great comfort in the treasured memories you have, and in the love and support of your dear family and friends.
