

Jason Gerald Lawrence

May 28, 1984 - August 15, 2018

Hurricane, Utah: Jason Gerald Lawrence passed away August 15, 2018, surrounded by his family. Jason passed away at the young age of 34. Jason was born on May 28, 1984, to Pamela Lawrence in St. George, Utah. He was a selfless and loving person with a big heart. He had unconditional love for everyone. He loved to play the piano, which he taught himself to do. He was the caretaker of his beautiful grandmother, Jeraldine Gifford Lawrence, until her passing in March of 2018.

Jason had many struggles in his life, but in the end he had turned his life around for the better. For that, we are all so very proud of him! Jason loved his family very much and had a very special bond with his sister, Jackie. He loved her very much! Jason, as your mother, my life will never be the same without you in it.

Jason is survived by his mother, Pamela Lawrence; sisters Jackie Clarke, Jessica Tebbs, Alisha Ruesch, Jessica James; brother-in-law Justin Clarke; brothers Wade Ruesch, Derrick Ruesch, Matt Winder, Marshall Winder; grandmother Aileen Ruesch; many aunts, uncles, and cousins. Jason was preceded in death by many loved ones. As Jason's mother, I would like to thank all the people who were there for Jason.

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Jason's passing. I was one of his scout leaders (Scoutmaster) way back when he was 12-13. Jason was one of the most kind hearted scouts in our troop. What I remember most was his sharing attitude and how he was the one that was first on the scene comforting and caring for another scout that had a little accident when we were at Quail Lake on a campout. I'm grateful for the times we shared in scouting and church activities. May God bless you Pamela and family. I know this will be very hard for a time but also hope you can gain some comfort knowing that Jason touched many lives while on this earth. One of those lives was mine, and I am forever grateful.

I happened upon Jason's obituary and wanted to share my memory of him. I remember him well from elementary and he had such a kind heart and big smile. I wish I had known more about him but I was quite shy as a kid. God bless him and your family as you mourn.

“ As my Aunt Jeri's health (that's Jason's grandmother) grew worse, I was more and more impressed by the kind, selfless service Jason gave. I've felt of Jason's kindly, big-hearted nature over many years. But in his grandmother's time of trial, he not only talked the talk, he walked the walk, demonstrating true Christ-like selfless service. I want to be more like Jason, because he was following the Savior. Thanks for being an example, Jason!

“ When I was visiting near the end of May this year, I went and saw him. He had a letter grandma had written me. We had a really long talk about what was going on in his life and what his goals were. He was so excited to tell me about how close he was to being able to go to the temple. He shared such a powerful testimony of the Savior’s love for him and of the healing power of the atonement. I got to do the share my testimony with him too. I’m sad that I won’t be there for his funeral. I’ll miss him. So much. I never understood it fully, but Jason and I had a unique cousin relationship. I’m glad that he knows that I love him.

“ I am so sad to hear this! I will miss his gentle nature, his kindness, and his warm smile. I loved the way his eyes lit up when he was helping someone or telling about something important to him. He will be missed. Love to the family.

“ Jason and I had three classes together our Sophomore year of high school. Sometimes his friendship was the only reason I made it through math class. It was our first class of the day. He will be missed.
