

Jay Cee Gammon

May 15, 1954 - June 10, 2017

Jay Cee Gammon passed away on June 10, 2017 from complications due to diabetes. Jay was born on May 15, 1954 in Provo, Utah to Wayne Howard Gammon and Juanita Campbell. He attended school in Las Vegas and later graduated from Reno High School.

After high school he established a career in his lifelong love of carpentry. His career as a cabinet maker took him to various parts of the West like Southern California; Boulder City, Nevada; Eden, Utah; Lake Tahoe, Nevada; and Mapleton, Utah.

During Jay's life he was an animal lover, especially dogs and chickens (all of which had a name)! His pets were his family and he took great pride in their care and comfort.

Jay was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and was ordained to the office of Elder. Jay enjoyed his opportunities to serve in his Mapleton ward.

Jay was preceded in death by: his brother Jeff Wayne Gammon, his mother Juanita Campbell Burns, his father Wayne Howard Gammon, and his stepfather Robert Burns. He is survived by: his stepdaughter Charmaine Spallino; five sisters: Darlene (Oscar) Ellis, Cynthia (Dan) Olsen, Cheri (Les)

Grayson, Jill (Kenneth) Cox, and Carillon (Phil) Bachman.

Memorial services will be held on Monday, June 19, 2017 at 3:00 p.m. at the LDS chapel on 1068 South 1600 West Hwy 89, Mapleton UT. Interment will be on Tuesday, June 20, 2017, at 10 a.m. in the Provo Cemetery.

“ It was a very Humbling experience to be able to attend with Jay, as he took out his Endowments at the Payson Temple a year or more ago! He was always a very thoughtful person.
