

Jeffrey Mark Milne

April 28, 1955 - March 9, 2014

Jeffrey passed away due to kidney and liver failure, just before 1 AM, Sunday, March 9, 2014, at his parent's home in Washington, UT.

Jeff was born in St. Luke's Hospital, Pasadena, CA, April 28, 1955, the second child, second son of his parents, Clinton and Lorraine C. Milne. Educated in the California public school system he went on to California Polytechnic Univ., in San Luis Obispo, and then to BYU in Provo, UT where he received his degree in Geology. As a geologist he worked with various companies, as well as independently, mainly in the development of oil and gas wells. He was very gifted with the ability to explain difficult concepts in a kind understandable way to those not so knowledgeable, and he was always especially gracious to the elderly and little children.

He loved Hawaii and so wished he could live there --- but above all else he loved his family the most, and was very proud of them. He is survived by his children: Megan (Tiernan Dunmeyer) of Logan, UT, Corry Michael (Johnna Bramblett) of Grover Beach, CA, Kevin Paul (Crystal Wild) of San Luis Obispo, CA, and Casey Mark of Ventura, CA. At present these children have given him seven grandchildren: Kalin, Grace, Rose, Clover, Huxley, Nali and Indie --- each one the apple of his eye!

In addition to his parents Jeff is also survived by his siblings: Gregory (Barbi) of Lompoc, CA, Ann (Ron Wight) of Benton City, WA, and Paul (Susan) of Porterville, CA, plus many nieces and nephews.

At his request cremation has taken place and there will be no funeral. However, an informal memorial will be held for friends, family, and friends of the family on the 28th of April (his birthday) amid the red cliffs of Southern Utah, and he has asked that everyone keep it simple, wear muumuus, flip-flops, and/or Hawaiian shirts and spend the time remembering the happy, loving times.

Death Is A Door – Nancy Byrd Turner

Death is only an old door
Set in a garden wall
On gentle hinges it gives, at dusk
When the thrushes call.

Along the lintel are green leaves
Beyond the light lies still;
Very willing and weary feet
Go over that sill.

There is nothing to trouble any heart
Nothing to hurt an all...
Death is only a quiet door.
In an old wall.

“ To the Milne Family,
Our hearts are heavy hearing of the passing of Jeff. I personally have so many memories of our families living close on Carla Ct. and Flora St. It seems as Jeff had a full life with beautiful children and grand children. I pray that your sorrow will somehow be lighter by knowing friends love and care about you at this time. Our love to all the Milne family.

“ Jeff, Thanks for your lasting friendship over the last 40 yrs. You've been one of two best friends. Too many great memories to name just one. But I will say this, you always offered a place to stay when I came to visit. And when you lit that mortar in 2005, that was pretty awesome. Almost as awesome as the dynamite! Farewell my good friend, until we meet again.
