

Jocelyn Gee Butler

November 19, 1932 - August 18, 2019

Jocelyn Gee Butler, age 86, passed away on August 18, 2019 in her home in St. George, Utah. She was born on November 19, 1932 in Wichita, Kansas to Edward Simmons Gee and Virginia Frazier. Jocelyn married Buddy Low Butler in San Diego, California on August 15, 1952. She grew up in Santa Fe, New Mexico where her parents operated a dude ranch. After moving to San Diego, she attended school and became a nurse. She loved to square dance and play bridge. When Jocelyn and Bud moved to St. George, she joined the Red Hats organization.

Jocelyn is survived by her four children: Cynthia Brumbaugh of Brigham City, Utah, Deborah Armstrong of St. George, Utah, David Edward Butler of Seattle Washington, and Wayne Paul Butler of Boise, Idaho. She was preceded in death by her husband, Buddy Low Butler; two brothers: Edward Simmons Gee, Junior and Gordon Kittredge Gee; and two grandsons: Brandon Petersen and Taylor James Price Gubler.

The family would like to thank M J Gubler, Logan Reese of Dixie Hospice, Dixie Hospice, and Cynthia of Senior Helpers for their care and loving support. The Graveside Service will be held on Saturday, August 24 at 1:30 PM in Wellington, Utah at the Wellington City Cemetery.
