

Judith Ann Keno

May 27, 1938 - June 12, 2017

Judith Ann Keno was born in 1938 in St Louis, Missouri, where she graduated from high school.

She moved to California and became a travel agent in Silicon Valley where she built a client base of loyal executives. She loved people and went out of her way to help those in need. Children however were her favorite and she enjoyed playing and being with them.

She became a resident of St George in 1999, and motor homed for seven years before moving into her home in 2006.

She passed away peacefully on June 12, 2017, as a result of Alzheimer's.

She is survived by two brothers who live in Missouri; three sons who live in California; three step-daughters who live in California and Oregon; and her loving spouse in St. George, UT.

Services will be held June 23, 2017, at Serenity Funeral Home at 1316 South 400 East Suite A-5 in St. George, UT. Viewing will be held at 10:00 a.m. with services to follow at 11:00 a.m.

“ Judy was the happiest lady in the world! Always smiling, always friendly and loving life. So sad when Alzheimers robs a person and their family of a personality like hers. We'll miss her and always remember the outgoing, fun lady she was. Huge thanks to her husband, Frank! He was such a loving and patient caregiver to her during this trying time for him also.
