

Judith Ann Struthers

November 10, 1948 - February 6, 2014

Judith Ann Struthers, 65 year old Hurricane, Utah resident, passed away February 6, 2014 in Provo, Utah. She was born November 10, 1948 in Indianapolis, Indiana the daughter of John and Reva Cross Russell.

Judy had a passion for crocheting. She would make baby blankets whenever the opportunity came available. She loved to play bingo, and every possible dabber available. Everyone who knew her, knew that she had a great love for the late Elvis Presley. She had collected much of his memorabilia such as the Elvis Bears.

Judy was an amazing, caring woman, mother, aunt, grandmother, and friend. She had an unconditional love for all.

She is survived by her husband Stan Morgan, four children: Tim, Jackie, Harold, and Robert. Six grandchildren: Amanda, Alyssa, Jaden, Serena, Damien, and Jaxson; also one brother Ray and one sister Willie.

Funeral services will be conducted at 11:00 AM Saturday February 15, 2014 at the Hurricane 9th Ward LDS Chapel 100 West 374 South in Hurricane, Utah with Bishop Michael Hirschi officiating. Friends may call at the Church on Saturday February 15, 2014 from 10:00AM until 10:45AM.

Arrangements under the direction of the Serenity Funeral Home of St George, Utah.

“ I remember when she teased kk with her gum before she could walk and Kaylene actually walked to her to get the gum from her. On Tricias 1st birthday she shoved Tricias face in her cake and then Tricia crawled over to her and wiped her face on your moms dress. For me just that I love her and I miss her alot already
