

Judy Wood Calder

February 7, 1940 - February 14, 2018

Judy Wood Calder, age 78, passed away on February 14, 2018 in St. George, Utah. She was born on February 7, 1940 to Warner Wood and Ellen Nelson Wood in Boise, Idaho.

She was preceded in death by her husband Clarence Andrew Calder who passed away in 1997.

Judy grew up and spent her youth in Ontario, Oregon with her two sisters, Marla Doman and Nanette Bean. She graduated from Brigham Young University and Oregon State University with degrees in Elementary Education. She married Clarence during her senior year at BYU on December 15, 1961. Together they lived in Albuquerque NM, Berkeley CA, Pullman WA, Livermore CA, Tracy CA, and Philomath OR. They also had the opportunity to live in Auckland New Zealand for 1 year. Judy and Clarence had 5 children, Brian, Greg, Kaylene, Chad and Jared.

Judy worked both as a homemaker and educator. She taught elementary age children and had a passion for teaching people to read using Reading Recovery programs.

In her retirement Judy moved to St. George, Utah where she spent her time volunteering for hospice, Switchpoint, and other community service organizations. She also served several church-service missions for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. Judy was her grandchildren's greatest cheerleader and she lived for Zumba, politics, and world travel. She is survived by her five children and a passel of grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held February 19, 2018 at 11:00 AM at the LDS Church located at 82 N. Dixie Drive, St. George, Utah. A celebration of her life and interment will be held at Pleasant Valley Cemetery in Philomath, Oregon on July 21, 2018.

“ Brian, Greg, Kaylene, Chad, & Jared...we retired folks were so very sorry to hear of Judy's passing. Genie Mortensen was kind enough to send me the sad information. I passed it on to those of us Philomath Retirees who meet once a month for breakfast. They were all crushed to hear of your lovely mom's passing. May you find peace in knowing she is with your dad. Prayers and hugs to all of you! Kay Yechout retired Media.

“ Calder family just wanted to send our love and condolences for the passing of your sweet Mom/Grandmother. She was a very special lady and we enjoyed getting to know both her and her husband while they were in Philomath. You may not remember us but we are Deon and Roger Cole and our sons still in Corvallis are Craig and Darin. We appreciated their friendship and the great example they were to all who knew them, and especially the wonderful smile and happy outlook your Mom always had. You have a great heritage and example because of your parents. God bless you.
